Additional Comments

Disclaimer.

1. Due to Health & Safety requirements the installation has to be a permanent installation. Therefore the customer must be aware that at the end of the trial period when the equipment is removed, there may be drill holes in walls from the base station and speakers. It will be the establishment's responsibility to fill the holes and any other marks left behind.
2. Damage or Loss of equipment. If any of the equipment which is on the 30 Day Trial is Damaged or Lost please inform us immediately so that the equipment can be replaced as soon as possible. The cost of repair or replacement will be incurred by the customer.
3. Our company reserves the right to remove the equipment at the end of the 30 Day Trial if a purchase order for the full invoice amount has not been received.
4. The equipment should be covered by the establishment's own insurance and it is therefore your responsibility to make the appropriate arrangements.
5. All equipment remains the property of AVT Communication Systems Limited for the duration of the 30 day trial period unless a purchase order is received for the full invoice amount.

Terms.

1. We will contact the establishment receiving the trial to arrange the installation of the equipment.
2. The area where the trial is to take place will need to be clear of all personnel for up to a three hour period.
3. Once the installation is complete there will be a short training session, the person who will be using the system the most will need to attend and any other people who may be required to use the system are welcome to attend also.
4. One week after the installation we will call to see how the trial is progressing and to answer any queries you may have.
5. One week before the end of the trial we will contact the establishment to arrange to remove the equipment.
6. After the trial is over there will be a follow up form for you to complete, to let us know your feedback on how the trial went.
7. Should we receive an official order for the equipment before the end of the 30 day trial then the equipment will become the property of the establishment and will be left in place.
8. By signing below you are agreeing that you have read, understood and agree to all parts of this form from page one to page three.
